The main objective of the European Project Management Training (EPMT) is to bring an innovative approach to European project management.

It has been developed by experts and project managers of European Projects from six European countries.

One of the most crucial issues in international projects is the multicultural aspect of the project team.

The EPMT will provide training tools for project managers to learn how to manage international teams cooperating in virtual environment.

EPMT course addresses the following target groups:

-  project management trainers and lecturers
-  consultants of EU funded projects
-  project managers and coordinators
-  profit and non-profit organizations implementing European projects
-  public organizations and authorities
-  anyone who plans to write and realize European projects

EPMT Training package includes:

Training model 80:20

in the first part of the training package, we describe the programme philosophy.

EPMT training handbook

it is a training scenario with detailed description of all the programme steps.

Theoretical part summarized, filtered and presented by means of hand-outs (CD and printed).

Real project case studies from real projects will be collected and during the training solved by EPMT participants.

Video-training

methodology describing role-plays used during the training. Role plays will be recorded on video camera.

Participants' book participants' handbook will be developed by EPMT trainers and given to all participants of EPMT training.

An interactive EPMT portal contains the following project information:

-  project objectives
-  interesting documents concerning European project management
-  profile of project partners
-  links to institutions dealing with project management
-  sources focused on EU funded projects important source of information for trainers
-  EPMT package for trainers (upon registration)
-  EPMT package for students (upon registration)
